ANNOUNCEMENTS

Election of Student Association Vice-President and all three class presidents will be held Friday, October 9. Information on duties of these offices should be gained by speaking with former class presidents now on campus: Scott Sullender, Senior; John Lacy, Middler; Barry Cressman and Tom Duncan, Juniors. While the Student Constitution has been rejected, the election will loosely follow the paradigm of elections described in the Constitution until such time as a new code is adopted. Information can be obtained from the Student Association office in the basement of Stuart Hall or from Rollin Kirk, President, Student Association.

The Commission on Church and Race of the Synod of New Jersey, UPUSA, has invited the Student Association to send a delegate to this commission. Any student wishing to share in this work of the Church should send an application to Rollin Kirk by Monday, October 3.

PRINCETON FOOTBALL. Special tickets for the University games with Colgate and Columbia may be purchased from the Seminary's answer to Jack Lalane--Mr. Roger Rozeboom. Tickets cost $1.00 and make for a good youth group activity. NOTE: Purchases should be made the week prior to the game by phoning Roger at 924-9188.

An open invitation is extended to all students to meet for luch and prayer on Thursday afternoons from 12:30 to 1:15 in the Alumni Room of the Campus Center. Any questions should be addressed to Les Malakian or Joel Crosby.

Again this year an opportunity for getting together with a broader range of students on an informal basis will be made possible through SMALL GROUPS. All students, married or single, whose interests range from Bible Study to theological discussions to fellowship are encouraged to become involved. The format for each small group will be set forth by those participating; the general scheme has been to meet for a few evenings each month for dinner and discussion on or off campus. If you are interested in hosting or joining one of the groups, call Les Malakian or Joel Crosby, or sign up in the Campus Center at the table provided for this purpose on October 6 and 7.

WIVES OF ALL STUDENTS AND ALL WOMAN STUDENTS, ATTENTION!

You are cordially invited to the first meeting of this academic year of the WIVES' FELLOWSHIP. October 1, 7:45 P.M., Campus Center Auditorium. SWAP SHOP. REFRESHMENTS. Come join us for an evening of fun and fellowship.

NB: ALL activities notices to be published in The Wineskin MUST be turned in not later than noon on the Tuesday preceding the week of the events. There is a box designated for such notices in the basement of Stuart Hall.

WEDNESDAY, (CON'T)

Rev. Arthur M. Byers, Jr., Secretary of the Seminary and Director of Senior Placement, announces three important meetings for students who are interested in or have questions about serving in the United Presbyterian Church. Two identical meetings for seniors preparing Candidate's Information Forms for their dossiers will be held, the first at 1:30 and the second at 7:30 P.M. These sessions are also open to any graduate student who wishes to seek a call to a UPUSA after January or June 1971. Spouses of seniors are also invited to attend. If care of children is a problem, husband and wife may attend separate meetings.

The Rev. Robert Kerr from the Dept. of Ministerial Relations, the Rev. Allan Gripe from the Interboard Office of Personnel Services and the Reverend William Henderson from the Division of Vocation in the Board of Christian Education will all participation in the program. The docket will include a description of assistance available in making a vocational choice, preparing a dossier and seeking a call. It is important that all seniors who expect to serve in the UPUSA upon graduation or within a year thereafter attend.

Another meeting will be held at 4:30 P.M., under the leadership of Mr. Henderson, for juniors and middlers who have questions about church vocations, service opportunities and sources of help and information. The program will be different from that offered at 1:30 and 7:30; it is designed to help students who feel they have unanswered questions about vocational opportunities and candidates' procedures in the UPUSA. The discussion will cover the range of seminarians interests and the church's resources to meet these interests.
